

DESCRIPTION

Majestic country house with guest house near Ronda, Málaga, Andalusia. This property is as unique as its location. It is designed to blend in with the environment. Set on 9 hectares, with ancient old oak trees and breath taking views over the rolling hills and the mountains in the distance.

This luxury country property is an ideal place to disconnect from the stressful day-to-day world, to meet up with friends and family, and to enjoy life together in this stunning natural setting. The main villa comprises an entrance hall with guest toilet, giving way to a large main living area with half-open kitchen, dining, and sitting area. Opens up to ample terraces, either in the courtyard, on the South or the West. Steps down from the terraces will bring you to the pool area. Four ample bedroom suites with bathrooms are accessed from the gallery in the courtyard. All bedrooms have private terraces. The large master suite (5th), with dressing and bathroom is located at the South and has its own large terrace-deck. The room and deck provide spectacular views over the surrounding countryside and the Ronda mountains in the distance. From the entrance hall steps lead up to an office or storage room....
