

DESCRIPTION

Authentic villa with panoramic views of El Torcal – including two casitas

Just a ten-minute drive from the lively village of Villanueva de la Concepción, this charming detached villa offers stunning views of El Torcal – an impressive natural area known for its rugged limestone formations, rare flora, and spectacular hiking trails. Here you can enjoy peace, space, and the authentic atmosphere of the Andalusian countryside, while still being close to local amenities.

Built in 1995, the villa stands on an almost fully fenced, flat plot of no less than 5,267 m². The main house of 112 m² features three comfortable bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom. One of these bedrooms also has a separate entrance from outside, making it ideal for creating an additional guest apartment or rental unit. The living room in the main house is warmed by a cozy wood-burning stove, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere on cooler evenings, and a heating and cooling air conditioning system ensures comfort throughout the year. All bedrooms, as well as the two casitas, are also equipped with air conditioning....
