

DESCRIPTION

Large and interesting village house for sale in Gaucín with beautiful views and ample walled garden and various terrace

This is a property with masses of potential and charm. Spanning across two streets, offering many possibilities for a new owner to exploit . Originally built in 1940 – this house has some special features .

Especially charming and inviting is the walled patio garden as one enters into the house via this picturesque yet spacious patio and several levels of terraces – offering that all important outside space which is so desirable in a village setting .

The house has two storeys' and a very large basement.

The ground floor has central heating and an original open fireplace , a kitchen , 2 salons and a dining room a bedroom and bathroom . Off the kitchen there is a large winter sun room, and some lovely feature arches with West facing views towards Cortes de la...

